About Jennie

Jennie began patchwork in 1989 and by 1994 she was firmly hooked and completed a teaching diploma and became involved in the C & G programme. Within the syllabus one of the required subjects was texture. As there was little around, Jennie began to create her own.

Jennie now has seven books and has taught extensively all over the world and also, of course, she is co-presenter for Jushands-on.tv and also on Create and Craft TV.

Tuesday 7th February – Expert ‘Ease’ – Sew with Success!

Cut with confidence and seam with success! This is a class to sort out all those knotty dilemmas such as ‘how do you sew Tumbling Blocks, piece Geese properly and which way and why do you press the seams’. Learn how to cut templates along the correct grain and how incorrect cutting results in wavy edges and lumpy seams. Discover how to piece accurately, get the points to match and the work to lie flat. Explore quick tips for binding plus uncover many more tricks of the trade. Look at different patchworks from blocks to strip designs such as Bargello. Create a series of samples to remind you of why, when, where and what to do to. Use these ideas Build confidence so that you too can sew with expert ease!

One Day Only Workshop £70 (Day one only)
Price includes morning coffee & biscuits on arrival, buffet lunch and afternoon tea & cake and not forgetting Jennie’s expert tuition.
