About this local area

Bridlington is situated on the East Yorkshire Heritage Coast, 32 miles north of Hull and 17 miles south of Scarborough and just 42 miles west of York.

The traditional harbour is the home to our fishermen and it's the number one shell fish port in the UK – with much of the catch being exported to Europe and beyond.

There are two beaches and The Royal Bridlington is situated just over the road from the fantastic South Beach. There are also two towns to explore – the old and the new.

Around the area there are many historic homes to visit including Sewerby Hall, Burton Agnes, Sledmere House, Bishop Burton, Burnby Hall etc RSPB Bempton Cliffs is the home to thousands of seabirds including gannets and the puffins who live on the very steep cliffs over the summer months.

Golf is very big in the area with superb courses and prices – tee times can be arranged – see www.yorkshirecoastgolf.co.uk for more details.

Bridlington has a birds of prey centre, there is a sealife centre in Scarborough and the Deep is located in Hull.

The Wolds are on our doorstep with cute villages and fantastic scenery providing the inspiration for many Hockney paintings.
