About Jennie

Jennie began patchwork in 1989 and by 1994 she was firmly hooked and completed a teaching diploma and became involved in the C & G programme. Within the syllabus one of the required subjects was texture. As there was little around, Jennie began to create her own.

Jennie now has seven books and has taught extensively all over the world and also, of course, she is co-presenter for Justhands-on.tv and also on Create and Craft TV.

Tuition 10am to 4pm approx. each day with free time unlimited evening sewing for residential students.
Non- Resident Students 10 -4pm

Piece, Patch, Twiddle and Fiddle – Fabric Play for All

Spend a happy three days either piecing an Emsworth Star block and then create a Tucked Up Tote OR create a sample book of every which way to achieve successful piecing and applique in your patchwork – become an expert!

Students selecting the Star and Tote will learn a variety of ways to conjure tactile surfaces from simple folds and utilise the effects for a splendid generously sized multipocketed bag.

If you choose the second option, then you can either turn your samples into a panel or keep in a handy reference book for future use – always have these hints and tips ready to hand.

In this class you will cover everything from curves to Y seams and much more in between.

Alternatively, come and ‘do your own thing’ and enjoy some fun and fabric frolics with like-minded people.
